Total $

The packing material descriptions reflect on the materials used in packing. The price is based on every individual material and/or amount used. This is not the total for your move. This fee will be added on to the Bill of Lading. Additional rates may apply for additional packing and unpacking services requested. Shipper will be notified prior to the use of any material being added. The final balance will be calculated when concluding the service. By signing below, the shipper acknowledges and accepts the total price listed above to be added onto the Bill of Lading.
